

RC Aerobatics Boot Camp May 2&3, 2009

Hosted By Stampede City RC Model Club, Calgary

Are you curious to learn more about RC aerobatics? Would you like to fly with purpose and precision? Are looking for information about competing in RC precision or scale aerobatics? Then this event is for you!

This event offers something for everyone: Presentations so you can learn more about RC aerobatics, trimming, competition airplane setup, Pattern and IMAC. Hands on practice get help trimming your airplane, see demos of the sequences and practice your precision flying and judging.

Presentations

General Aerobatics:

Trimming
Radio Setup
Flying Techniques
2009 Events

IMAC (scale aerobatics):

Introduction to IMAC
Sequence Overview
Judging
Giant Scale Airplane Setup

Pattern:

Contest Operations
Sequences
Judging

Flying

Trimming Flights
Maneuver Instruction
Sequence Demos
Mock Judging

For further information contact: Chris Hammond 780 444 3619 nitroracer@shaw.ca in Edmonton
Jim Johnson 403 640 4228 jbrooks@telusplanet.net in Calgary
website: <http://www.scrmc.ca/> (map and further directions available on the site)

Driving directions:

1. from the Deerfoot Inn & Casino (located at Deerfoot Trail and Barlow Trail South)
2. head east on 114 Ave SE, continue through the town of Sheppard to find Range Road 283
3. at RR 283 turn left (south) through the gate and follow the road into flying field.